ARGENTINA ENDS 'POCKET REVOLT'

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI) — President Arturo Frondizi crushed a bloodless "pocket revolt" by military forces in the city of San Luis in western Argentina today, just six hours before he was to leave for Europe. Not a shot was fired.

House Group Rejects Ike's Foreign Aid Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Appropriations Committee, rejecting a last-minute plea from President Eisenhower, today cut an additional $701,800,000 out of his already-trimmed request for new foreign aid funds.

At a closed session, the committee affirmed the cut in the face of a warning from the President that free world defenses would be jeopardized by the action. Eisenhower expressed this view in a weekend message to congressmen just before his departure for the troubled Far East.

THE CURTAILED aid funds are earmarked for continued American military and economic support for anti-Communist countries for the year starting July 1.

In an authorization bill passed earlier, Congress pared the President's $4,175,000,000 request by $98,700,000. Today's recommended reduction in the actual money further cut the requested funds to $3,384,500,000.

MORE THAN HALF the cut—an even 400 million dollars—was applied against military aid, for which two billion dollars was sought. The rest was imposed on requests for economic assistance in various forms.

In sending the big money bill to the House, the committee rebuked the International Cooperation Administration, which administers the economic end of the aid program, for an "overly optimistic attitude" on how much it can effectively spend; for disregarding the committee's go slow warnings last year; and for spending $2,500,000 on an "investment incentive" project specifically rejected by Congress.

On Labor Problems

Farmers Urged To Go to Court

SALINAS (UPI) — California's state employment director today urged farmers to take their farm labor problems to court to find out if he is handling them legally. Irving Perluss said in a speech prepared for the Salinas Valley growers that he could not be sure of his stand in refusing Mexican nationals to growers involved in labor disputes until a court decided a case one way or the other.

"I HAVE NO illusions that I am an oracle on high," Perluss said. "I sincerely would be gratified to receive some judicial guidance." Perluss recently refused to approve Mexican nationals to the Fred Podesta farms in Linden for the cherry harvest in spite of the fact Podesta claimed he could not get domestic workers because of a labor dispute.

PERLUSS TOLD the growers

Most of the rebels fled, leaving in the hands of the government Gen. Mauricio Gomez, self-styled commander of the "army of the Andes" and one of the two highest-ranking officers in the uprising.

GEN. FORTUNATO Giovanni, a 66-year-old retired officer, had been named "provisional president" by the rebels and the "capital" of Argentina proclaimed by them as San Luis.

But the revolt scarcely got off the ground, and Giovanni disappeared with most of the rest of the rebels, including the "ministers" of his short-lived cabinet.

THE REBELS gained some successes in the first few hours by arresting Gov. Alberto Domenech of San Luis Province and some of his ministers. But they received no additional support and their most intense campaign was waged orally over the radio.

The revolution started at 11:03 Sunday night when the rebels seized the radio station, and ended at 5:40 a.m. today when the radio stopped broadcasting rebel pronouncements.

TEN MINUTES later, Gov. Domenech announced over the same station that he had resumed power and that the situation was normal again.

The government had estimated the rebel strength of about 400 men. Reports reaching here indicated at least some of them were captured.

The reports said Col. Miguel Angel Montes, a loyalist officer, restored the provincial government and returned the governor to his office.

Body Found In Desert Identified

Believed Victim Of Religious Fast; Missing Two Years

INDIO — When William H. Shaw reported his 40-year-old son missing in 1958, he told Riverside and San Bernardino county sheriff's officers that he feared that he might have gone off somewhere on a religious fast.

His fears were apparently justified here Saturday when a jeep prospector found the skeleton of a tall angular man, still prostrate in a position of supplication, about 30 miles southeast of here.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY Deputy Coroner Richard Preston said today that it appeared that the remains of the man were those of Donald D. Shaw, 42, of Calamessa.

"Everything seems to point to this identification," Preston said. First of all, he said, there were religious tracts scattered about the remains. In those that mentioned fasting, the mention was underlined.

"He had apparently spoken of fasting for the 40-day period set forth in the Bible," Preston said.

IF SHAW EMBARKED on a humanity-saving fast in the heat of 1958's summer — one of the hottest ever recorded here — he picked the wrong time and the wrong place.

"That desert is one of the hottest places in the county," Preston said.

The remains were discovered Saturday by 53-year-old Preston LaBau of Mecca, a jeep prospector on a reconnaissance mission through the region. LaBau said that there was rarely any travel through the desolate, sun-ravaged area.

THE CLOTHING worn ragged by exposure to the sun and elements, was being directed to the county road camp at Thermal where Shaw's father is located. "If he can identify his son's clothing, it may solve the entire puzzle," Preston said.

A diet chart from White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles was also being investigated but a hospital spokesman told The Desert Sun today that if Shaw had been a patient it was on an outpatient basis only.

NEWPORT BEACH (UPI) — News that a commercial fisherman had landed a 300-pound shark of the man-eating variety Saturday quickly emptied nearby beaches.

Ted Pheglet of Costa Mesa said the seven-foot shark became entangled in the nylon net he was using to fish for sea bass about 300 yards off shore. The fisherman hopes he can sell the shark's teeth for enough money to pay for his ruined net.

Going to Russia

Passport Given Father of 'Spy'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The father of captured spy pilot Francis G. Powers, obtained a U. S. passport today and said he was going to Russia to see his son in about 60 days.

Oliver Powers, 55, a Norton, Va., cobbler, was asked whether he had assurances that he will see the younger Powers who was shot down while piloting a U-2 plane over the Soviet Union last May 1.

"YES, I DO," Powers told reporters. But he said only "that's my business" when asked who had extended these assurances.

The elder Powers wrote Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev asking his help. The Russian leader offered to aid him to see his son but Khrushchev refused to interfere with the trial of the U-2 pilot.

POWERS LEFT the passport office to confer with State Department officials and the Soviet Affairs Division. He said he would seek a visa from the Soviet Embassy later today.

ELEANOR, ADLAI DISAGREE ON TERM, CANDIDATE

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said Sunday that Adlai E. Stevenson was a candidate for president, Stevenson immediately said she was wrong.

The disagreement seemed to center on what was meant by "candidate."

Mrs. Roosevelt, who has said the strongest Democratic ticket would be Stevenson and Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass.) in the number two spot, asked Stevenson Friday to "clarify" whether he was a candidate, because a number of his prominent backers in 1952 and 1956 had switched to Kennedy.

Stevenson sent his reply by telegram, and Mrs. Roosevelt based her interpretation on this paragraph:

"I have declined repeatedly to comment on questions about a 'draft.' I think I have made it clear in my public life, however, that I will serve my country and my party whenever called upon."

Questioning of Slaying Suspect Continues Today

INDIO — Sheriff's deputies today stepped up their questioning of a Mexican National farm laborer in the budgeon slaying of a fellow worker, sheriff's spokesman said this morning.

Francisco M. Bravo, 40, was arrested by deputies on suspicion of the murder of Antonio Delgado, 45. Delgado's body was discovered yesterday in a shallow grave on the ranch of George Leach at Oasis.

Witnesses in a worker's barracks at the Leach ranch told investigating deputies that Bravo and Delgado quarreled after Bravo knocked some tortillas off a bench in the barracks late Saturday.

Deputies said they have an 18-inch long section of 1½-inch irrigation syphon pipe which they believe to be the murder weapon. County pathologists said that Delgado died of one of four blows inflicted to the head by the instrument.

Pravda Reports

Policy of Peace 'Wins' in Russia

LONDON (UPI) — An unusually frank statement in a major Soviet newspaper indicated today

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has recaptured a Kremlin majority for his policy of peaceful coexistence with the West.

Pravda, the Communist party organ, launched a veiled attack Sunday on the radical views of Red China and its backers in Russia.

IN EFFECT it was a commentary on what is practically an open secret: There has been a major policy split between two groups in the highest councils of the Soviet Union.

The Pravda article reaffirmed as "correct" Khrushchev's policy that war is not inevitable, that the world should disarm and that countries with opposing political

First Stop Scheduled Is Manila

Indignation Sweeps Japan Over Attack

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — President Eisenhower flew out of Alaska for the Orient today on the second leg of a tour that will take him to the ancient islands of the Far East and their multitude of 20th century problems. The President's jet transport took off at 9:41 p.d.t.

HIS FIRST oriental port of call was Manila, metropolis of the Philippine republic, where a million or more Filipinos waited to give him a hearty welcome.

President Eisenhower arrived at the rain-dampened air strip at 6:25 a.m. after spending the night at Elmendorf AFB. With him was Lt. Gen. Frank J. Armstrong Jr., commander of Alaska military forces.

THEY STOOD at attention in 50-degree weather while a military band played the National Anthem and the Marine Corps Hymn. The President then inspected a company of air police as well as the band. He chatted with Armstrong while he reviewed the troops and smiled broadly as he boarded the plane.

Undaunted by recent riots in Japan against the U. S. — Japan security treaty, the President still was determined to go on to Tokyo via Formosa and Okinawa, after his three days as guest of Philippines President Carlos P. Garcia.

REPORTS THAT Moscow and Peiping propaganda organs were encouraging anti-Eisenhower demonstrations caused no major changes in the President's plans and for this he received accolades from the European press.

"This man has guts," said the London Daily Mirror.

"We tip our hat because of his personal courage," said the West German newspaper "Neue Presse."

SOME REVISIONS in Eisenhower's Japanese schedule were under consideration by the two governments, according to Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, but the basic plan of the visit beginning in Tokyo June 19 remained unchanged.

Indignation at the mob attack on White House Press Secretary James Hagerty swept Japan today and Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi personally assumed command of security arrangements for President Eisenhower.

systems can live together peacefully. IN SHORT it was vindication of Khrushchev's policy and a firm rejection of the Peiping get-tough line which torpedoed the summit conference in Paris.

The Pravda article — ostensibly an essay on Communist ideology — attacked extremist "leftwing" elements in international Communism.

NO NATIONAL group was named but the tenor of the article made it clear that Communist China and those in the Kremlin who back the Peiping line were the target.

The occasion for the statement was the 40th anniversary of the publication of V. I. Lenin's book, "Leftwing Infantism."

SCHOOL DISTRICT TELLS SUMMER COUNSELING PLAN

Mrs. Lois G. Nowlin, coordinator of guidance for the Palm Springs Unified School District, has announced that a summer counseling program will be offered to high school students from July 1-30.

Partial funds for the projects are provided to the school district by a Federal grant — through a National Defense Education Act for counseling and guidance.

PURPOSE OF THE summer service, according to Mrs. Nowlin, is "to provide a more intensive kind of counseling — particularly to 11th and 12th grade students — who are now thinking of their future life work and study."

The program will also provide seminars to aid students in vocational and educational planning.

THE SIX-WEEK summer counseling program will give all high school students more time with the counselors, will provide for more continuous use of vocational and educational planning.

aid from community resources as people in business fields will be able to take more time to consult with the students during the summer months, and will also allow for more time for group testing.

Mrs. Nowlin pointed out that the regular school term counseling service includes educational and career planning, testing, college advisement, and the more long range type of personal counseling in which students seek to find goals and directions for life beyond high school.

"DURING THE school year," said Mrs. Nowlin, "students are under many kinds of pressures, with many activities on the campus and in the community. The four high school counselors have manifold duties during the regular school year."

The summer session will give many students opportunities for specific forms of help arising out of counseling contacts during the school year, with less pressure and more time for both the student and counselor.

More than 200 ships steamed into New York harbor on their maiden voyages in the past year.

PHIL ABRAMS, Palm Springs Director of Public Works, reads off a list of people who have not presented their deeds of right-of-way to the city for the widening of North Palm Canyon Drive to the members of the North Palm Canyon Drive Association. Members of the association present each took some of the 20 remaining names to contact the people personally. Pictured at the table are Joyce Chapman, Culer Nichols, Abrams and Harold Hicks. (Desert Sun Photo).

CITY READY TO LAUNCH PALM CANYON DRIVE WORK

Phil Abrams, Palm Springs Director of Public Works, has reported to members of the North Palm Canyon Drive Association that the city has received enough signatures to start the improvement of the city's main street. Abrams said that all but 24 persons have signed deeds for rights-of-way over to the city, and that eight of the 24 have been committed but not received.

"A TOTAL OF 87 per cent of the property owners — between San Rafael and Chino Drive — are in," said Abrams, "and the other 13 per cent are being worked on."

The public works director also told the group about the State Division of Highways plans to continue the double-lane road from its present terminus north of the old city gate in to San Rafael Road, where it will merge into the new improvement.

Preliminary survey has been completed for the improvement and plans are now in Sacramento. ALSO THIS summer, the state plans to re-strip Palm Canyon Drive, and will add left turn lanes along the street.

On a motion of member Bill Olsen — with a second from Mary O'Brien, the association voted to send a letter to the city requesting a study on the need of crosswalks within the proposed improvement area.

OF GREATEST concern is the need for location of a crosswalk at Palm Canyon Drive and Vista Chino, where three new buildings have been constructed within the past year — a medical building, Sambo's and Germain's.

Association chairman Culer Nichols also brought up for discussion the annual contribution to the Chamber of Commerce and the meeting concerning the Master Plan which will be before the Planning Commission Wednesday afternoon.

HE ASKED THE people present to back his belief that the Chamber should get a budget of $105,000 this fiscal year, but failed to get the support he asked for.

He did gain heavy support when he asked the members of the association to back the changing of the zoning map to show the present zoning on North Palm Canyon Drive, instead of proposed hotel strip zoning.

Jet Fueling Tanks Topic For Meeting

Council Planning Session to Discuss Tank Installation

Gathering together all interested parties including officers of Aero Palm Springs, Bonanza Airlines, and representatives of the Shell Oil Company—Palm Springs City Council will hold a meeting soon to determine whether the city will allow installation of jet fuel tanks at the Palm Springs Airport.

Bonanza Airlines, the only local airline operating jet-prop service out of the Village airport, has asked the city to allow Shell Oil Company to install the fuel tank, and to give the oil company a long lease, at least to the end of the city's lease on the facility.

AERO PALM SPRINGS, the operating company for the airport, has only one year to go on its present lease and cannot sublease for a period greater than that.

Aero does, however, want to increase its lease with the city to 1965, the same lease period which the city now has on the airport.

AT THE MEETING, discussion will be held also on the operation of the airport which has not been accomplished to the full advantage of the facilities, according to council members.

The city is also deeply concerned over the fact that within the next months it must submit a bond issue to the voters asking for funds to purchase the airport property.

Today is Monday, June 13, the 165th day of the year, with 201 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mercury.

On this day in history:

In 1866, Irish poet and dramatist, William Butler Yeats was born.

In 1877, the Russo-Turkish War began.

In 1935, Louisiana Sen. Huey Long spoke 15 hours and 35 minutes during a Senate filibuster against the extension of the National Recovery Administration.

In 1942, "Yank," a new U. S. Army magazine, was published in New York for the first time.

In 1942, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt created the Office of War Information with journalist Elmer Davis as chief.

Thought for today: American journalist Elmer Davis said in "No World, If Necessary": "One world or none, say the atomic scientists. Has it occurred to them that if their one world turned out to be totalitarian and obscurantist, we might better have no world at all?"

Chamber Funds Needed

More Americans are spending more time and money on vacations than at any time in the nation's history. In a bid for a share of this enormous tourist business, communities, counties, states, regions—and even nations—are spending millions upon millions of dollars advertising and publicizing their attractions. Palm Springs has a lot of competition, in other words.

Practically all of the money spent for this category of advertising is appropriated from tax funds of these various governmental jurisdictions. Since everyone benefits directly or indirectly from the tourist business, spreading the cost among all the elements of the area is the only sound and fair plan. It has been almost universally adopted, with a limitation in most cases like we have here.

Most of the larger divisions have their own Tourist Bureaus or Development Commissions—as they are often called. Many of the communities save on overhead by using the Chamber of Commerce as their advertising and publicity agent. This method has worked successfully here in Palm Springs for many years and should be continued — at least until the fund is much larger.

The 1960-61 budget of $105,000, proposed by Chamber committees for advertising, publicity, convention promotion and Visitors Bureau should be wholeheartedly supported by the community at large. Even residents who have no business interests here — and sometimes think they should not be asked to share in the cost of this promotion, should realize that an area like Palm Springs cannot just stand still. It either goes forward or backward; and a community that is slipping is not a desirable place in which to live—or engage in business.

Most important of all, Palm Springs is in a position right now to benefit tremendously from advertising and publicity. Now is the time to capitalize on all of the wonderful publicity this area has had in the past year. Such preparation for a continuing program of promotion makes it doubly effective—as any expert in the field will testify. Once given a good start, it costs much less to keep the ball rolling.

Public approval of this promotion program which is so essential to the continued prosperity of Palm Springs, should be made so apparent to members of the City Council that they are certain a vote in support of the appropriation is entirely justified.

To those not familiar with the operation of the plan, it should be explained that the City simply reimburses the Chamber of Commerce for promotional expense in accordance with a strict budget. The other numerous functions of the Chamber are financed through its annual membership subscriptions. The City Government is NOT making a donation to the Chamber of Commerce, as its Board of Directors will prove to anyone.

This is one item which should not be cut—but City Council should be on the alert to every other possible paring of the proposed 1960-61 fiscal budget. And the taxpayers to whom they are responsible should show a great interest in the budget and the subsequent tax rate, and urge their representatives that this be done.

Big Dollar Per Word Men

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "You newspaper fellows are in the wrong business," said C. L. Closelooker, the research man. "How would you like to have worked from January till June at approximately $204.55 a word?"

A word? Was Mr. Closelooker talking about the going rate for poets, playwrights, novelists and ghost writers?

"NO, I'M REFERRING TO U. S. Senators," said Closelooker, who was taking a close look at statesmanship in the Upper Chamber. "At this writing there have been 110 roll calls in the Senate which, at the annual salary of $822,500, comes to around $204.55 per word. Of course, the session isn't over yet."

Still, that's a lot of money just for saying "Yea" or "Nay."

"IT'S BETTER than you think," pursued C. L. Closelooker. "Unlike reporters, the Senators get paid whether they produce a y word or not. Or to put the matter another way, the Senator who answers the least number of roll calls ends up getting more money per word. Now, you take Senator Jack Kennedy. He only answered 25 of the first 110 roll calls. With an absentee record of 77 per cent, Kennedy got $900 per word on the roll calls."

Golly, even for a literary Senator that's very good pay. You'd think Kennedy would want to stay in the Senate, unless he figures on being away from the White House as often as Mr. Eisenhower. Anyhow, the Massachusetts Senator can't attack the President for goofing off on the job, can he?

"NEITHER CAN two other Democratic Senators with Presidential ideas in 1960," said Closelooker, his nose against the page. "The record shows that on the first 110 roll calls, Senator Hubert Humphrey missed 75, being absent on 68 per cent of the 'yeas' and 'nays.' Humphrey has pulled out of the presidential race, but he's up for reelection in Minnesota."

Senator Symington has missed exactly 55 of the roll calls to date, a 50 per cent absenteeism. Of the Democratic contestants for the White House, only Senator Lyndon Johnson looks good on roll calls. As Majority Leader he's expected to stick around, and he has. He missed only 4 roll calls, giving him an absentee rating of a mere 3 per cent."

WELL, MR. Closelooker wasn't suggesting that only Democrats played hooky, was he? Vice President Nixon is the sole GOP candidate for President, but there are a number of Republican Senators who'd like to be Vice President. What about Senators Morton, Goldwater and Dirksen?

"Morton missed 29 roll calls (26 per cent), Goldwater missed 24 (21 per cent), and Dirksen missed 13 (11 per cent)," said Closelooker. "But, of course, Republicans like to be seen in the Senate chamber — there are so few of them."

IT SEEMS incongruous that Senators from both parties would aspire to become national figures while neglecting the work which their States expect of them. There must be some simple explanation. Were these negligible issues on which the several men most likely to be our next President didn't stay on the job?

"Let's take a close look at the issues," said Closelooker, a meticulous man by name and nature. "On the Civil Rights bill, Kennedy missed 16 straight votes. Would you say that Hubert Humphrey prides himself on favoring Clean Elections? Well, there were three roll calls on the Clean Elections bill — and Humphrey missed two of them. Symington plays a lot of jazz about favoring education and school construction. But there were eight roll calls on the Education bill, and the Missouri man wasn't there for four of them."

IN BRIEF, THESE Democratic candidates not only missed a lot of roll calls, but they missed important ones, too.

"Except for Johnson, whose case is a little different," agreed Closelooker. "Of the four roll call votes which the Majority Leader missed, none could be called nationally important. One was a 69-15 confirmation of an Associate Justice to the Court of Claims, and another was the 75-0 clincher on an appropriations bill. Johnson didn't vote on two bills concerning community television antennas which were recommended (beaten) by votes of 38-26 and 39-38. Being in the television business in Texas, Johnson may have felt some conflict of interest."

BUT, GENERALLY speaking, the voting attendance of the Senatorial I - want - to - be - President group is pretty poor?

"Take a close look," invited Closelooker, "and try to reach any other conclusion."

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Tomorrow's day
Don't let your feet drag,
Get up at the dawn
And hang out the flag.

Palm Canyon Drive will be colorful tomorrow, June 14, Flag Day.

The American Legion never forgets. The Star Spangled Banner will be flying.

How about your house, mister? In these days of turmoil, it's a good time to show your colors.

FLAG DAY is the 183rd anniversary of the day on which the Continental Congress formally adopted the Stars and Stripes as the flag of the United States, in 1777.

There has been quite a change in the flag from the original design of 13 stars and 13 stripes. The 13 stripes remain but the 13 stars have grown to 50.

There has been considerable growth since Francis Scott Key wrote the Star Spangled Banner.

NOW THAT THE SUN has returned to the coast again after a ten day leave of absence, the beach is jumping again.

Scores of pretty girls (they all look pretty from my observation post on the bluff, I can't see their faces.) muscle men, each making like Adonis and myriads of kids.

The kids building dykes against the approaching tide and throwing the sand into the lunch spread out on a blanket by the party five feet away.

THE SUN BROUGHT out the Old Codger, too. His bones won't stand the damp weather. He's admitted being 83 since 1957.

He thumped his cane down to a seat next to me and started talking forthwith.

"Ding it," he said, "what's come over this country?"

"WE SIT QUIET and let this bum, Krewcut or whatever his name is over in Roosia, call us names."

"He says he won't dicker with us until we get another President."

"What in tarnation is the matter with us? Why don't the guys in Washington slam back at him and say:

"O. K., you so-and-so, we ain't going to talk to you until you get a new Preemear."

"I WENT UP San Juan hill with Teddy Roosevelt. Now, there was a man! He spoke softly but carried a big stick. This guy Krewcut speaks loud. Maybe he isn't sure of his stick."

"Why, if Teddy was still here, the Rough Riders would gallop into Moscow in no time."

STAN DELAPLANE:

Shank of the Evening

With a good deal of grace and savoir faire (if I do say so myself), we held down a chaperon position for the Junior Prom the other evening.

It is a nerve - wracking thing — unless you get used to it, as Galileo remarked after they raked him up for the third time. A sort of subdued hostility radiates between the Chaperon and the Promenader. It is the relationship between the Player and the Umpire.

SAYS THE Chaperon: "Good evening, Paul — I mean, John. Oh, Harry? Of course, yes. Hard to see in this light. Well, well, enjoying yourself?"

They gaze on each other uncomfortably.

THINKS THE Chaperon: "Heavenly days, these kids are younger than when I was in high school."

Thinks the Promenader: "Gee, Mr. Hardshell sure looks funny in that outfit. I'm glad Dad didn't make me wear HIS tax tonight."

The evening then proceeds to deteriorate.

IN ALL OTHER ways it was a most successful affair. We contributed a teen-age daughter. She looked remarkably fresh, considering that it took an Act of Congress to get her dressed.

Most of the day was spent in preparation — a Roman orgy couldn't have taken more careful planning.

The young gentlemen were advised NOT to forget the corsages.

AND THE YOUNG ladies were advised NOT to order off the expensive side of the menu. "Take the regular dinner, not the de luxe. And DON'T order steak!"

Having thus enjoined the young to be frugal, the chaperons went out to the most elegant place in the county and belted down a champagne supper.

THE DUTIES of a chaperon are hard to describe. A chaperon has no textbook. Also no experience. (Once is enough.) You read about these teen-age dances. And you hardly know whether to wear a carnation in the buttonhole or carry a bicycle chain.

However, decorum prevailed. Nobody seemed bent on stealing hub caps or preparing for the Mafia.

WE SPOTTED OUR daughter dancing by. "Hello," we said timidly.

"Straighten your tie!" she hissed.

We all went down and straightened our ties. The mirrors in these locker rooms seem to age you. Have you noticed that? They ought to soften the light. Or something.

ANYWAY, CONSIDERING how nervous we all were — we had three hysterics and one tantrum before we even got our hair up. Considering all that, the Prom was most successful.

I attribute a major part of this to the chaperons.

This is confirmed by the following all-day post-mortem. It was held via telephone — but we were not expecting any calls anyway.

THE CONVERSATION was vague: "He DID? Not REALLY! But the interpretation is that it was a success."

One thing I imagine is bugging the French restaurant where the Promenaders had their dinner: Why did they all leave the little French peas on their plates?

"We ordered the regular dinner like you said. Only we were all afraid to eat the peas. We were so nervous, we thought they might spill off the fork and we'd just DIE!"

QUOTES

CAMDEN, N. J. — Vice President Richard M. Nixon on the possibility Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller might be his running mate on the Republican ticket:

HOLLYWOOD — Have been wondering how long before this would happen. The TV stars have cut that deeply into the earning power of the "official cowboy and rodeo rider." Requirement is the actors must join the Cowboy Association IF they will be allowed. With the success of Peter Gunn and Robert Taylor Detectives, Fox is next on the bandwagon for a Silent Investigator series. But did you know they had to go to Washington to get permission from the postoffice?

The continued writers strike (since last January) has stymied plans for Rod Taylor's Hong Kong series to film abroad. They'll go anyway to get as many backgrounds as possible.

Lucille Ball and Bob Hope sent a copy of their movie script, Facts of Life, to, of all people, — Desi Arnaz! They would like him for a guest star.

If you're wondering how Shirley MacLaine is going to play the lead in My Geisha, just know that she's getting used to tinted contact lenses to cover her little blue eyes.

ANGEL BABY departed the unprecedented record - breaking rainfall of their Florida location to finish the movie right here at MGM. First sequence to be made here — a rain scene!

Brynie Foy will sign Christine Jorgensen for his women's prison movie based on the Candy Barr story. There have been some careers in show business but Christine's may top them all.

At the screen writers' bash, co-award winner Billy Wilder tried to get his very bashful and silent Some Like It Hot partner, I. A. L. Diamond, to say thank you. I. A. L. argued, "I don't even talk to my wife."

PALM DESERT — Director Clay Stearns, who is producing "The Follies" for Palm Desert Players, reports that his large and varied cast is doing so well in rehearsal for this big show that he predicts the 1960 edition will be the best ever.

MAILMAN MAY QUIT HIS ROUTE TO KEEP SUNBATHING

HOMESTEAD, Fla. (UPI)—Mailman Walter Stiles, who believes that nudism eliminates over emphasis on sex, indicated today he will not give up sunbathing to save his postal job.

"Nudism isn't a peepshow," he said. "It's a way of life."

Stiles, 44, was suspended recently after the Post Office took offense at publication of his picture in the nudist magazine "Sunshine and Health." They called it "conduct unbecoming a government employee" and gave Stiles until today to reply.

Stiles said the outcome of the cases will have no effect on his allegiance to sunbathing in the altogether.

Stanley Saylor will dance. Carl Jensen will present his bag of tricks and a judo act — fresh from San Diego successes — will demonstrate their athletic skills. Frances Romero, a Date Festival star, will also appear. Eddie Dominguez will play the score and many other well known people will make up the cast exceeding forty in number.

THE SHADOW Mountain Club is the location for the performance and at 8:30 p.m. — Saturdays June 17-18 and 24-5 — are the dates.

Tickets are for sale at Carpenters Furniture Store or at the door. Admission: Adults, $1.50; Children 75 cents.

France Warns Russia, to Stay With West Allies

GENEVA (UPI)—France warned the Soviet Union today it can never separate Paris from its western friends, even though the French government sometimes may differ with its allies' approach to disarmament.

The warning came from Jules Moch, chief French delegate to the 10-nation disarmament conference, who returned here from a weekend of consultation in Paris where he was filled in on his government's latest arms cut views. Moch told the Soviets at today's conference session that they might just as well quit trying to split France away from its allies, since decisions at this parley must be unanimous.

"In any case," Moch added, "western solidarity remains complete."

AFTER SUN-SET

'Scoreboard' Censors Keeps Us in the Know

By GEORGE LAINE

If you're one of the 15,000-plus Americans who subscribes to a publication called "Censorship Scoreboard," you'll know that the publication is celebrating its second year of effort this month.

But 15,000 people in a nation of this size isn't very many. The chances are that many of you have never heard of the missile, let alone seen it.

THAT'S A SITUATION that should be altered, I believe.

Anytime someone does something for me, I'm grateful. And that, in essence, is exactly what "Censorship Scoreboard" is doing. They're keeping track of who does what to whom—in the field of censorship—to such a degree that their publication has actually been cited into court records as "examples" of what censorship ultimately arrives at.

IN THE MAY ISSUE, the Scoreboard printed a list—partial at that—of the stories it has covered in the battle to keep men's minds free. Let's look at some of them.

There was the question of censorship in advertising, the ban of Playboy Magazine, a detailed accounting of the "magazine raids" that denuded several midwestern book stores, a full dossier on the "Lady Chatterley's Lover" battle—both in the book and movie division—and ever so many other subjects.

There are detailed segments dealing with foreign censorship (most totalitarian nations appear to be less stringent than our Constitutionally-guaranteed country) and segments dealing with the post office, juvenile delinquency, censor qualifications, religious censorship, etc.

IN OUR COMMUNITY, I believe, we are blessed with a startling amount of responsibility on the part of our book dealers, motion picture exhibitors and theatrical producers.

For that reason, there has never been—to my knowledge—a great hue and cry for a censorship board here. We can all be thankful for that.

Instead, Palm Springs is the unique Village again. We can do—as Americans have always done—what we think best in the wisest judgment we can exercise. We impose our own "censorship" upon ourselves. Taste and propriety do receive a vote here because we will do it so ourselves.

I IMAGINE that many readers of this paper have lived elsewhere, as have I, and have seen censorship boards function.

No such board that I have ever seen—and no such board do I believe to exist—has the exact qualifications to censor films, books, plays or art for me. That's because I believe I have tastes and demands akin only to myself. It also follows that each of us has this same personally-directed taste and demand.

To believe that one or two or three or 50 or 100 people—meeting together—could decree the taste or demand of each of us is fallacious as to assume that any of the cue or two or three or 50 or 100 people could select your dinner, your wallpaper, your car or your clothing and not be fully in error most of the time.

THAT CENSORSHIP in our nation is becoming more unbridled, more rampant than ever before is attested by the ability of this publication to fill its pages each month.

I should like to see "Censorship Scoreboard" go out of business—and I'm sure they feel the same way—out of lack of such stories to print.

They will not, however, and for that reason I'm pleased to have them added to my list of regular mail received. And congratulations on their birthday.

One out of eight Americans will enter a hospital this year.

THE LIVELY ARTS

'Obies' Go Mostly to New Ones

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — It is encouraging that new authors dominated the list of "Obie" awards given annually in several categories for work in the off-Broadway theater.

Jack Gelber's "The Connection," a sort of phantasmagorical drama in which jazz music and narcotics are the principal ingredients, won the award as the best new play. It will be available through the summer at The Living Theater.

"THE CONNECTION" also was designated as the best all-around season just ended, and its leading man, Warren Finnerty, was recognized as the best actor.

OFF-BROADWAY still has a predominance of revivals over a season, but the percentage of completely new works has risen sharply in the past two years.

This trend and the critical appreciation of several new playwrights in the past 12 months, even though the works of some were not successful, are healthy signs that the off-Broadway theater is beginning to fulfill what should be its primary function. That is providing the opportunity for new writers to see their works

DENNIS TURNS BACK CALENDAR

When Dennis suddenly realizes he has been guilty of forgetting Charlie's birthday, he turns back the calendar to convince Charlie "today" Sunday is his birthday rather than "yesterday" Saturday.

The plan works fine, but Dennis gets literally hung up in an elevator, has to do a quick radio show and also convince a doctor that neither he nor Charlie are off their rockers before the "day" is ended during KTTV's "Dennis Day Show," Monday, June 13, 8 p. m., Channel 11.

DENNIS DISGUISES himself as the Swedish exterminator who comes once a month — on Saturday — so he can convince Charlie that it's his birthday. Everything is fine, until Charlie decides to apologize to Dennis for not forgetting his birthday. Dennis has to make a quick change and a mad dash from the basement to his apartment, and accidentally gets his neck jammed in the elevator.

To relieve the pain, Charlie gives Dennis some of Mamma's elixir, which Dennis promptly drinks instead of rubbing it on as per prescription.

A DOCTOR IS called, who examines Dennis, but points out that he never makes house calls on Sunday. This completely bewilders Charlie and puts Dennis through the grinder again as Charlie goes to listen to his favorite Saturday night program.

With Marion's aid and a tape recorder, Dennis becomes "The Silver Kid" to keep Charlie happy and convinced it is his birthday.

Dr. Martin Klein tells the complete story of parachutes — how they are built, tested and what they do — in "Hit the Silk" on "Adventure Tomorrow," Monday, June 13, 8 p. m., KOOP, Channel 13.

Highlighted are parachute testing by whirl-tower, free-fall missile, rocket, supersonic sled and other devices; a look at an actual chute recovered after a test high in the stratosphere; films of the opening and sometimes failure of chutes under extreme conditions; and the story of chutes that will recover the space capsule at the end of the Project Mercury orbital flight.

'Still Stagestruck' O'Brien too Young At 60 to Quit

By RICK DUBROW
UPI Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD UPB — Pat O'Brien, a chip off the old sod, is plunging headlong into the tough grind of a weekly TV series because, at 60, "I'm still stage-struck."

The ABC series, which will go on the air this fall, is entitled "Harrigan and Son," and O'Brien plays a widower-lawyer who takes on his Harvard-educated off-spring as an associate.

"IT SHOWS THE difference between our generations — he has an old hatchet-faced dame for a secretary and I have a beautiful chick," said the affable Milwaukee Irishman, downing a mug of beer at a restaurant.

Asked why he is subjecting himself to the rigors of a weekly TV show when he doesn't need the money, O'Brien said:

"I'D DIE without acting. I've been at it for 40 years. And what am I going to do now? Sure it's tough to be on every week — but it keeps you active, and it keeps you out of trouble. That one-eyed monster, the TV camera, doesn't tell any lies. You can't play around on the night shift and get away with it.

"And, let's face it, I'm stage-struck. After all, I'm just a kid. I still smoke 12 to 16 cigars a day."

THE WHITE-haired actor, classmate, Navy buddy and lifelong pal of Spencer Tracy, frankly admitted that before "Harrigan and Son" he made three "bum" pilots (test films) for hopeful TV series.

"Ah, lad, they were really angel cakes, and you know how many eggs there are in an angel cake," he said. "In one I would have been a private eye, in another a parole chief and in another a

"AND THE westerns — I never saw a cowboy hero lose his hat, have his horse shot or reload his gun. They shoot about three million shots."

The fact is O'Brien said, he is a softy at heart.

"I'm a crier," he said. "Frank McHugh once said I cry at card tricks."

"WHATEVER THE reason, it's part of my philosophy. In all my years, I never, from a public rostrum, told a rough story that I wouldn't tell my own family — and I think that's the way it should be on TV. Anyone can get a yuk story — but it takes class to tell a good clean story."

O'Brien's only concern with his new series is that it might cut down on his traveling. He hops a plane to Ireland whenever he can.

"I was in Dublin last St. Patrick's Day," he said, "and if that ain't carryin' coals to Newcastle, I don't know what is. And I got news for you — the pubs are closed on St. Pat's Day."

ANDY GRIFFITH IS GUEST STAR

Broadway star Andy Griffith plays a small-town sheriff, justice of the peace, newspaper editor, philosopher and wit when he appears as guest star on "The Danny Thomas Show," Monday, June 13 on the CBS Television Network (9-9:30 p. m., p.d.t.) (This is a re-broadcast.)

Danny Thomas stars in the series as night club entertainer Danny Williams.

Danny, returning to New York from a vacation in Florida, is stopped by the sheriff of Mayberry for going through a stop sign. Danny protests a $100 fine imposed on him by the justice of the peace, who is also the sheriff who arrested him.

Rather than pay the fine, Danny decides to go to jail. A television interview show Danny was to appear on in New York decides to carry on the interview with Danny while he is in jail. Here Danny

Levant Returns To TV Tonight

Oscar Levant returns to KOOP with a weekly, hour-long show starting Monday, June 13, from 9 to 10 p. m. June Levant joins her husband on the "Oscar Levant Show" along with top guests from all walks of life and from every field of endeavor.

The show will be produced by Al Burton with Arnold Isaak acting as associate producer. It will be videotaped for syndication.

Seven League Boots Go to Europe of Old

Jack Douglas' "Seven League Boots" stride back in time to the Europe of old to witness some colorful, unusual and weird pageants in "Masquerade," Monday, June 13, 7 p. m., KOOP, Channel 13.

First stop is the Belgian town of Ath where viewers watch a parade of giant effigies through the narrow streets; in Binche, Belgium, the costumed Gilles dancers perform steps which probably date back to the Indian slaves brought to Europe by the Conquistadores in the 16th century; in Basel, Switzerland, a life and drum corps noisily try to outdo each other; in the little mountain village of Urach, the villagers conduct a pagan New Year's celebration, perhaps thousands of years old; and in Furth, Germany, the "Boots" cameras record the colorful re-enactment of a drama of heroes, villains, a fair princess and a big, bad dragon.

Fluid Silhouette Is Back

BY GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Around Manhattan:

Fashions' chemise silhouette of yore didn't die — it just took a long nap.

For lo and behold, it's back, although to drag out the word chemise again makes all of seven Ave. shudder. The center of New York's garment industry remembers all too well, in dollars lost, the quick way the shapeless look arrived and retreated two years ago.

Today, the industry refers to the "fluid" silhouette, and it's true that at the better manufacturers, the 1960 dresses are decided improvements over their unfortunate predecessors. But they still skim the body and cling nowhere.

One of the exponents of the fluid silhouette is the young French designer, Jacques Tiffieu, whose fall and winter collection for Monte Sano and Pruzan is full of tube-like frocks. Many have either the suggestion of a lowered waistline, or come with wastline actually dropped down around the hip.

The newest in costume jewelry design is a three-strand necklace called "shoulder to shoulder." Judith McCann, who holds several patents on jewelry inventions, created the three-strand arrangement of beads to drape around the collar bone and shoulder blades above strapless evening dresses. The strands, caught in four places with jeweled separators two front, two back, come in jade, warm brown, jet, chalk white, violet, pale gray, turquoise or coral.

Sir Winston Churchill's famed "siren suit" of World War II now has become a space age fashion for females.

The British statesman often wore one-piece coveralls which zipped up the front and once explained to reporters they were easy to get into in case of an air raid.

Now, a pattern manufacturer McCall's has created a similar coverall, but in a brand new fabric. They're designed to pull over everything and take the haphazard look out of a woman's hurried trips to the station, the school or market.

The firm included the suit in a "bustles to missiles" fashion show to observe its 90th anniversary.

The coverall was made of a cotton fabric which will be ready for home seamstresses by fall—a knit fused with polyester foam (Bondaknit) and said to be weather-repellant, sag and stretch-proof.

One suburbanite promptly named it a "space age Dr. Denton."

There are two kinds of vitamin pills: the supplemental and the therapeutic kind.

Groceries Take Fifth of Budget

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Food expenditures this year probably will account for a little more than 20 per cent of the average income per capita after taxes says Kathryn Cooley, Extension food and nutrition specialist at the University of Nebraska.

This would be the lowest share of income for food in the post-war period. In 1947, average per capita spending for food amounted to 27 per cent of income after taxes.

Meat consumption per capita is expected to be a little higher next year.

The 1960 increase will probably be mostly in beef, Mrs. Cooley said, although pork consumption may be up moderately during the first half of the year.

The increase in beef is expected most in the latter part of the year and will be greatest in medium and lower grades.

OPERATION HANDCLASP is the name of this project, with Palm Springs Deaneys enlisting the help of the Marine Corps and the Navy to send needed garments and vitamins overseas. the Navy will take it the rest of the way. Pictured, on left, is Mrs. Frank Scully of the Deaneys. On the ladder is Cpl. J. D. Walraven of Ashdown, Arkansas, and Pfc. W. C. Withem Jr., also of Ashdown. On right is Mrs. Elwood C. Madsen of 750 Paseo de Anza.

Friends Are Meeting At Signature Room

A popular meeting place these June days around the luncheon table, over cocktails or at dinner, when Phyllis Bedard is entertaining at the piano bar, is the Signature Room.

Tables are at a premium at the peak hours, with familiar faces on all sides.

Among those dropping in this week were: the Walter Brunmarks, Jacques Cole with the Bill Codys; Bess Bender and Mrs. Fred Ingram; Cliff Brown in a huddle with Taylor and Ernie Dunlevie; Blake Corliss, Kathy Herrick, Mary Anne Arnold, Kay Oberberg, Lucy Elrod; Charlotte Hutchens with daughters Sue and Nancy; Hutch is on a business trip to Acapulco.

Also: the Dick Atterburys, Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell Hechter, the Ken Hermans, William Francis, Earle Strobe, Ed McCoubrey, Jack Mason, Dr. Charles Nevins, Pete Sheptenko, and many more.

Sorensons Take House at Laguna

Mrs. Frank Sorenson and daughters, Rita and Anita, left Friday morning with two of the girls' schoolmates, Candy Crux and Rosemary Kite, for Laguna Beach. The Sorensons have leased a house there for the summer months as they have done for the past six years.

Sorenson, who is the director of Shadow Mountain Club, will remain on the desert as the Club stays open during the summer but will join his family as often as possible.

If your aluminum pots and pans have become stained, they may be cleaned to their original brightness by boiling in butter-milk or a weak vinegar solution. A few rhubarb leaves, added to a quart of water and boiled in the pans, also will brighten them.

What the Woman Shopper Forgets Are The Staples

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Supermarkets go to infinite trouble to please the woman shopper—but there's one small area they're missing.

They provide the parking space, the flattering color schemes for the interior, the non-household products for one-stop marketing, piped-in music which ought to be piped down in most stores, even nursery services.

Then, why not a list of staples near the entrance? Something the housewife could tear off as she picked up a cart, and use as sort of a string around the finger to remind of regular needs. Such a list would be especially helpful if the woman is among the majority who market from memory.

For, a new study of shopper forgetfulness shows we most often leave the store minus the everyday needs—coffee, milk, bread, butter, oleo, orange juice.

Saul Nesbitt, an industrial designer for 15 years and a specialist in food packaging and marketing, said he queried 96 women in three heavily-populated suburban New York and Connecticut counties and found that coffee is the item most often forgotten.

Next were milk and bread, and in homes where there were small children, peanut butter. Other edibles the women were prone to forget included sugar, salt, vinegar, cooking oils, pepper, mustard, ketchup and flavorings.

Non-edibles included light bulbs, laundry starch and bleaches, household ammonia, furniture polish, cleaning fluids and all types of paper products.

"The most overlooked are what I call the non-glamorous products," said Nesbitt. Frozen foods, cereals, cake and pie mixes rarely were forgotten.

Nesbitt said several of the women suggested that stores make available their advertised list of specials also at the entrance. And the tear-off want list should provide some white space for her own jottings. "This need to me is so obvious," said the designer. "I'm amazed it wasn't done years ago."

Pick Up Made with Non-Fat Fortified Milk Is Answer for Easy Loss Of Weight

The stresses and strains of this fast and furious age take more out of you than you might suspect. And that's the time when you reach for that "pick up" that lets you down later on when you discover that you are bound by pounds.

But there's a way out, and a delicious one! The Knudsen Creamery Co. has just put on the market a Dietized Non-Fat Milk called Petite. This is Grade A Pasteurized, non-fat milk, fortified with added non-fat milk solids, 400 USP units of Vitamin D (the daily minimum requirement) and 2000 USP units of Vitamin A per quart.

Petite gives you the flavor, the color, the abundant food value of whole milk... everything but the butterfat. Since it is low in calories and high in protein, you can treat yourself to this wholesome refreshment at any time during the day or evening without felling any guilty pangs about your weight.

Swimming Party Ends Season for Sigma Gamma Chapter

Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for the final time for this season Tuesday evening at the home of Millie Herbert. Hostesses for the swim party were Marta Scott, newly-elected president of the Chapter, and Fayne Pritchett, retiring president.

As Hawaiian music played in the background, guests enjoyed swimming and a social hour. Marta Scott, who is an authority on the native dances of Hawaii, presented several hula numbers for the attending members, explaining the words and movements of each song. After her delightful performance, all the sorority members received a lesson in hula dancing.

An exotic tropical punch was served along with fresh fruits and ice cream for dessert from a table beautifully decorated with shells and dolls brought from Hawaii by Marta Scott on her recent trip to the islands.

Red Sox Hire Back Man Fired in 1959

Pinky Higgins
Answers 'Personal Friendship' Call

BOSTON (UPI) — Michael Francis "Pinky" Higgins, a little less than a year's rest under his belt, takes up where he left off today — with the Boston Red Sox in the American League cellar.

Higgins, answering a "personal friendship" call from the Red Sox, agreed to come back and manage the weebone Boston team, presently 12 games out of first place.

THE RED SOX were in last place last July 3 when the 52-year-old Higgins was replaced as manager by Washington Senators coach Billy Jurges.

Jurges, a onetime star shortstop with the Chicago Cubs, managed the sagging Sox into fifth place in 1959. But, by last week, the club's dismal play forced his physicians to order him relieved from duty for reasons of health.

HE WAS REPLACED as interim manager by veteran Boston coach Del Baker, who managed the 1940 Detroit Tigers into the American League pennant. Baker wasn't confident he'd stay on as manager however. "I think it's on a day-to-day basis," he said.

Jurges was given his unconditional release by the Boston team last Friday. The Red Sox management said it was to allow the 52-year-old baseball veteran to find another job in case he did not want to come back to Boston.

Apparently, Jurges didn't want to come back. The Red Sox said Sunday Higgins had agreed to take over baseball's 1960 hot seat — at least for the rest of the season. "He said he was very happy to take over the club," a Boston spokesman reported.

Lamotta to Be First Witness

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta has been called as the first witness in the Senate investigation of boxing and its possible links with the underworld which gets under way Tuesday.

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) chairman of the anti-trust subcommittee which is launching the long-scheduled inquiry, said LaMotta will be questioned about three fights in which he figured as a top-flight fighter in the late 1940s.

Cannon-Rams Court Battle Starts Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — All-America Billy Cannon was due in court today for a hearing to determine whether he'll be playing for Los Angeles of the National Football League or Houston in the new American Football League next fall.

The opening day of the hearing on Los Angeles' Rams petition that he not be allowed to play for anybody but them probably will be taken up with arguments on whether it should be a jury trial.

Cannon, just about everybody's All-America choice as a halfback for Louisiana State University last year, was signed by both the Rams and the Houston Oilers of the new league.

The husky halfback signed three consecutive one-year contracts with the Rams on Nov. 30, 1959, before playing his final college game in the Sugar Bowl. He also signed a three-year contract with the Houston Oilers.

When the Houston contract was penned is a point of contention. Cannon said he signed with the Oilers under the goalposts after the Sugar Bowl game, but Los Angeles charges he actually signed with Houston owner Bud Adams three days before the game.

MICKEY MANTLE MAY BE SIDELINED FOR NEXT FIVE DAYS

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Mickey Mantle, suffering with a groin injury, will miss tonight's game against the Kansas City Athletics and may not return to the New York Yankees' lineup for the next four or five days.

"I can't hit and even if I did hit the ball I couldn't run to first," Mantle said. "The doctors say it could be four or five days before I'm able to play."

SLUGGERS PACE SUNDAY ACTION

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

They served punch Sunday and put a real kick in it just by adding a dash of lemon.

First thing you know, there was an all-out slugging brawl in which Washington's Jim Lemon got in the best looks with three homers.

Rocky Colavito of Detroit and Dick Stuart of Pittsburgh entered into the spirit of the occasion with two home runs apiece and Willie McCovey of San Francisco chimed in with a grand slam home.

WHEN THEY finally separated the combatants, here were the results:

The Senators won the opener of a doubleheader from the Tigers, 6-3, but lost the nightcap 12-5. The Athletics knocked the Orioles out of first place in the American League by beating them in a doubleheader, 6-1 and 5-3 in 10 innings.

The Red Sox downed the White Sox, 4-1, and the Indians took over the lead by a half game even though their twin-bill with the Yankees was postponed because of rain.

IN THE NATIONAL League, the Pirates cruised the Cardinals, 15-3, in the first of two games but dropped the nightcap, 5-2. The Giants climbed to within a half-game of the top with a 16-7 triumph over Milwaukee, the Dodgers defeated the Reds, 3-1, and the Cubs beat the Phillies, 8-7, in 10 innings.

A total of 11 homers was hit in the Washington-Detroit double-dip. Lemon drove in four runs in the opener with a homer and a single. Jose Valdivielso and Eddie Yost also connected.

LEMON BELTED two more homers in the nightcap, bringing his season total to 16, and Bob Allison also homered for the Senators, but it wasn't enough. Colavito hit two and now has 10; Frank Bolling and Chico Fernandez each hit one and so did pitcher Frank Lary, who drove in four runs while registering his sixth victory.

Bud Daley of the A's scored his seventh straight victory and eighth of the season when he pitched a five-hitter and struck out 11 Orioles batters in the opener. Kansas City won the nightcap by getting to Hoyt Wilhelm for two runs in the 10th inning.

FRANK SULLIVAN hurled a seven-hitter and started the Red Sox' winning rally with a fifth-inning single against the White Sox.

The Yankees had taken a 1-0 lead in the first inning of the opener with the Indians when the rain came and wiped out the whole affair.

Stuart ripped into Cardinal pitching for five hits, including his two homers, in the Pirates' opening game victory. The Cards hopped on former teammate Wilmer Mizell for three runs in the first two innings of the nightcap and went on to win behind Ernie Broglio.

THE GIANTS pounded five Milwaukee pitchers for 18 hits, the big blow being McCovey's pinch homer with the bases full during a six-run rally in the seventh.

Stan Williams of the Dodgers checked the Reds on four hits and struck out eight as he won his fifth straight without a defeat.

Title Bout To Draw $3.5 Million

Dempsey-Tunney
Bout Has Old
Mark of $2,658,660

NEW YORK (UPI) — When Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson step into the ring at the Polo Grounds a week from tonight, total receipts at the gate and for theater television are expected to approximate $3,500,000 — making it the richest prize fight in history.

Promoter Jack Fugazy said today the cash advance sale for tickets at the Polo Grounds had passed the $500,000 mark and indicated a live gate of at least $800,000. That would mean a crowd of about 30,000.

IRVING B. KAHN, president of Teleprompter Corp., said reports of sales for closed-circuit TV tickets at 230 locations in 125 cities in the United States and Canada were "fabulous."

"The demand indicates," said Kahn, "that at least 600,000 of the 700,000 seats in those locations—theaters, auditoriums, ball parks and arenas — will be sold."

That would mean the total collected at theater — TV locations should approximate $2,700,000 since ticket prices average about $4.50.

THE COMBINED $3,500,000 from live gate and theater — TV would exceed the previous record paid for a fight, $2,658,660 at the second Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney title bout in Soldiers' Field, Chicago, Sept. 22, 1927. That record was entirely for a live gate and theater-TV has yet exceeded it.

Although Johansson floored Patterson seven times in the third round for a technical knockout in winning the crown last June 26, the tight betting today indicates strong doubt that the dimpled Swede can repeat. Ingemar is favored at only 6-5. Last June Patterson went into the ring favored at 5-1.

COUNTERFEITERS HAD SURE WAY TO BEAT HORSES

YONKERS, N.Y. (UPI) — Two horseplayers who figured out a sure way to beat the horses took home up to 60 thousand dollars from two tracks until they parlayed themselves into trouble with the authorities, police said.

The two were arrested at Yonkers Raceway early Sunday for counterfeiting pari-mutual tickets. Police said William Carlin, 61, and Victor Zaleski, 57, both of Beacon, N.Y., would retrieve losing tickets discarded in disgust; change the numbers to those of winners, and present the tickets for payment the following night.

Robinson III With Virus Cold, Mother Reveals

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sugar Ray Robinson's mother, LeVa, let out the secret and Ray had to admit reluctantly today that he was sick with a virus cold when he lost a split decision to Paul Pender at Boston Friday night.

In that bout Robinson was trying to recapture Pender's portion of the middleweight crown. Pender of Brookline, Mass., is recognized as champion by New York, Massachusetts and most foreign countries.

Mother Leila explained she joined her 39-year-old son in Boston last Tuesday morning because of his illness. Thus she was with him for the first time before a fight since he started his comeback campaign in 1955.

She said she begged him to postpone the bout but he refused because of many previous accusations that he had "run out" on fights.

Little Wins Oklahoma City Open

Has High Hopes Of National
Open Victory

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Gene Littler, winner of the Oklahoma City Open, took off for Denver today with high hopes of winning the National Open championship that narrowly eluded him in 1954.

Littler, Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., and Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., finished 1-2-3 in the $30,000 Oklahoma City Open and all pose a strong threat in the U.S. Open that starts Thursday. This was Littler's first tournament victory since last August.

SIX YEARS AGO, as the "boy wonder" of the pro circuit, Littler finished second by one stroke to Ed Furgol in the National Open at Springfield, N.J.

The 29-year-old Singing Hills, Calif., pro, picked up a check of $4,300 here with a 72-hole score of 273-11 under par. But he needed a 15-foot putt on the 18th green to beat Wall.

Wall won second money of $3,000 with a 274 total and Palmer the defending champion, came in third and earned $2,000.

LITTLER SHOT a three-under-par 68 to go with earlier rounds of 71-64-70; Wall and Palmer both fashioned final-round 67's.

Wall had a nine-week layoff due to a knee injury, but played spectacularly here and finished 10-under-par at 274. He has been 40 strokes under par in his last 25 rounds, including a remarkable 14-under-par in qualifying for the National Open here Tuesday.

Palmer, a five-tournament winner this year who has collected more than $50,000 from 17 tournaments, pulled his game back together after one nightmarish round.

LITTLE LEAGUE WEEK THROUGHOUT THIS WEEK, DECLARES IKE

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. — President Dwight D. Eisenhower has set aside June 13-19 as National Little League Week.

By proclamation, the President has invited the nation to further the aims and objectives of Little League Baseball.

"Little League Baseball has contributed much to a wider interest in the game and encouraged our young people to direct their energies in healthful, competitive team sports," Eisenhower said. "Participation in this sport by boys, and their adult leaders, has helped to develop a feeling of fair play, community spirit and respect for the discipline of rules and decisions."

Speed-Gifted Trio Slated For Westchester Tomorrow

INGLEWOOD — Sensational Fleet Nasrullah, speedy Liberal Lady and hard-hitting Silver Spoon are expected to figure in the headlines this week when Hollywood Park stages three stakes, starting with the $15,000 added Westchester tomorrow.

Fleet Nasrullah goes in the $50,000 added Inglewood Handicap on Saturday, June 18, against such top horses as Bagdad, Eddie Schmidt, Seaneen, Finnegan and Sea Orbit, winner of last Thursday's $25,000 added Golden State Breeders' Handicap.

THE INGLEWOOD IS at a mile and one-sixteenth and, while a major plum itself, it is also an important stepping stone to the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup on July 16.

Victorious in the six-furlong Hollywood Premiere in which he set a new track record of 1:08 1/5, only a tick off the world's record, and winner also of the $111,300 Californian, Fleet Nasrullah suffered his only loss of the meeting when he dropped down to the 5 1/2-furlong Hollywood Express and attempted to carry 132 pounds.

THE INGLEWOOD is at the same distance as The Californian, which Fleet Nasrullah won by more than two lengths from Eddie Schmidt, Bagdad and others.

The sparks will fly in Thursday's $20,000 added Milady Handicap when the Irish-bred, Florida-owned Liberal Lady, winner of seven straight races, will try to make it eight against the likes of Silver Spoon and Honeys Gem. Liberal Lady defeated Silver Spoon in the six-furlong Sequoia Handicap, running the distance in 1:08 2/5. However, the Milady is a flat mile, and Liberal Lady has never tried a distance beyond 6 1/2 furlongs. She turned back Fleet Nasrullah and other speed burners in the Hollywood Express.

HONEYS GEM HAS been a winner at the meeting, and was a ball of fire last year. In the 1959 Beverly Handicap at Washington Park, Chicago, she ran a mile in 1:34, the fastest on record by a filly or mare.

Silver Spoon won three stakes at Santa Anita last winter, ranging from seven furlongs to a mile and one-eighth. She also beat the boy horses, including Kentucky Derby winner Tommy Lee, in last year's Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park.

The Westchester on Tuesday is at five furlongs for two-year-old colts and geldings that have not won a sweepstakes. The undefeated Rey Truckle, and the very quick King Kameha head the list of 26 nominees.

Rabbi Bloch Officiates at Scout Award

First Ner Tomid
Ever Awarded in
State of Arizona

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Rabbi Isaac E. Bloch, minister of Congregation Nove Shalom, was honored this week by officiating at the first award ever made in Arizona, of the Ner Tomid — eternal Light Medal, for outstanding religious service by a Boy Scout.

THE OCCASION was the Barmitzva of Gerald, youngest son of Senator and Mrs. Harold C. Giss of Yuma, and the third member of the family to be confirmed by Rabbi Bloch.

Senator Giss is the majority leader of the Arizona State Senate.

The affair, held at the Yuma Country Club, was attended by nearly 300 civic leaders, including Adjutant - General Ben Fraser, of the Arizona National Guard, Police Commissioner Richard Schuman, and members of the Legislature and local government agencies.

THE AWARD WAS made by Past State Commander Harry Goldsmith, of the American Legion, in his capacity of chairman of the Boy Scout Council. Participating clergy were the Rev. Charles Crawford, St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Yuma, and Lt. Commander Hal Veering, Protestant chaplain at Vincent Air Base.

The youth received the award for excellence in his religious studies, services at summer camp and assistance in teaching youngsters in Sunday School. Rabbi and Mrs. Bloch were the guests of Senator and Mrs. Giss during their stay in Yuma.

U.S. Helicopters Rescue 54 Men

MANILA (UPI) — Seven helicopters from the U. S. aircraft carrier Yorktown today rescued 54 seamen from the British freighter Shun Lee, which ran aground near Pratas about 500 miles northwest of Manila.

Distress signals from the Shun Lee were picked up by the Yorktown shortly after midnight Friday. The Yorktown immediately sped to the scene.

The citizens of Wharton, La., changed the name of their town to Covington in 1816 after a political rally at which generous portions of Covington (Kentucky) whisky were served.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have been teaching Physics for 33 years and not only was your reply to "Dick" a pip, but it would have made Professor Einstein turn over in his grave.

"If a plane crashed in the desert and no living thing heard it, was a sound made?" Dick asked. To this question, which has baffled generations, you blithely replied, "Yes", without even batting an eyelash.

"Sound" — according to the physiological definition — "requires a receiver." Without it there is no "sound." Truly yours, "Doc" (Cambridge, Mass.)

DEAR ABBY: I was surprised to read that "Dick" was having trouble with the question of sounds being reproduced by a plane crash in the desert. I asked this same question in my high school science class 20 years ago, and was soundly squelched by my teacher. This was before anybody would believe that matter and energy were convertible.

Good for Dick for raising the question and good for you for backing him up. I wouldn't have believed this old chestnut was still kicking around.

S. S. F., SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR ABBY: The argument about whether or not there was a "sound" made if no one was around to hear it can easily be solved by using the proper word. What Dick wanted to know was NOT whether a SOUND was made ("sound" needs someone to hear it in order to be termed "sound"). Dick meant was a "NOISE" made? Yes, you were right. A noise WAS made. So call it a "noise" instead of a "sound" and settle it!

PHYSICS TEACHER, Amarillo, Texas.

DEAR ABBY: May I be the thousandth person to tell you that the question about "sound" has no answer?

If Dick couldn't find the answer in his physics book, written by experts who have spent their lives studying sound, vibrations and transmissions, I don't know why on earth the poor kid thought he could get the answer by writing to you. Why didn't you just say you didn't know?

A. L., Washington, D. C.

DEAR ABBY: You were wrong when you supported the student who said that whether anyone was around to hear a sound or not, it still was a sound. I will not attempt to explain this phenomenon as I barely understand it myself, but I know I am right.

O. F. (Yuma)

DEAR ABBY: I thought everybody knew that sound required three things: (1) An object to give off vibrations, or "noises," (2) A medium to transmit these vibrations, (3) A device capable of receiving or "hearing" these vibrations. By definition, then, a plane crashing in the desert with no living thing around to hear it, does NOT cause "sound".
